Flora Anderson Hall & Brittain Williams Room

The Flora Anderson Hall (FAH) forms our largest conference facility and is complemented by the neighbouring Brittain Williams Room.

Light and airy the FAH has inbuilt AV and a stage, with a range of microphones. The main room can seat 190 theatre style and is very versatile.

FAH is a modern and open space, comprising of a large lecture room and ante room (Brittain Williams Room).

The Brittain Williams Room is used to serve refreshments in and has a beautiful view overlooking the Quad. It can also be used for smaller breakout sessions throughout the day.
The Margaret Thatcher Centre (MTC) is the ideal venue. It comprises a spacious Lobby, Lecture Room and Ante Room that opens out to a private garden. All three areas are interlinked; they can be used independently or on an open plan basis.

The MTC lecture theatre can seat up to 60 theatre style (36 x cabaret, 25 x boardroom), and has built in equipment required for a power point presentation.

The MTC ante room can be used for smaller breakout sessions throughout the day. Refreshment breaks can be served in the MTC lobby or ante room.

This impressive venue has adjustable lighting, and a built-in audio system including handheld microphones and a hearing loop. The Hall accommodates banquets (up to 192 persons). There are three steps leading to a stage and the High Table, which seats 24; all other tables seat 12 to 14 guests on wooden chairs.

Drinks Reception Venues

Weather it be pre-dinner drinks or a celebratory reception, Somerville has a number of reception venues to offer.

Our Mary Somerville Room, a traditional Oxford venue capped in history is available from 18:30 daily. It is the ideal drinks reception venue for up to 60. With big French doors opening up onto our beautiful quad, it offers the opportunity to spill outside and enjoy the College gardens in sunny weather.

The Brittain Williams Room is modern and open space, combining the benefits of a modern building with the beauty of a historic Oxford college. With a large main room and adjoining ante room it can accommodate up to 250 delegates, or can be used on its own, more suitable for numbers up to 100. It is a popular venue for drinks receptions due to its newly refurbished glass front offering a beautiful view overlooking the Quad.

In the summer vacation we can offer drinks outside on our Chapel Lawn in our Marquee.
Terrace Café/Bar

Terrace café and bar is also available for your use. During term time it is open from 9.30am-11pm on weekdays and from 12noon-11pm at weekends. (Alcoholic drinks are served from 5pm-10.30pm on weekdays and from 12 noon to 10.30pm at weekends.) Ideal if you are on a budget and would like delegates to purchase refreshments themselves (cash only). Please note there is no exclusive use during term time.

During Vacation time the opening of Terrace Café/Bar varies. However it is available for private hire in the evenings (subject to availability).

The modern bar space combined with a long outside terrace which flanks Little Clarendon Street makes this venue perfect for reception or BBQ type events, with the potential for either cash or account bar.
