Charter and Statutes of Somerville College Oxford

CHARTER

George the Fifth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, and Emperor of India:

To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting!

Whereas a Petition has been presented to Us by EDWIN STEWART CRAIG, ESQ., M.A., the President of Somerville College, Oxford, and EMILY PENROSE, O.B.E., M.A., Principal of the said College.

Praying Us to grant a Charter of Incorporation for the purpose of constituting them and their successors and such other persons as to Us might seem fitting a Corporation with the object among others of acquiring and taking over the property and liabilities of the Association known as Somerville College now occupying certain houses and buildings in Woodstock Road and in Walton Street in the city of Oxford, and of carrying on and developing its work under such regulations and with such powers as to Us might appear meet and expedient:

AND WHEREAS WE have taken the said Petition into Our Royal Consideration and are minded to accede thereto:

Now therefore know ye that WE, by virtue of Our Royal Prerogative in that behalf and of all other powers enabling Us so to do, of Our special grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion by these Presents do for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors grant, will, direct, and ordain as follows:

1. The persons whose names are set forth in the First Schedule hereto and all such persons as may hereafter become members of the Governing Body of the Body Corporate hereby constituted pursuant to the provisions of these Presents or the powers hereby granted shall for ever hereafter be one body Politic and Corporate by the name and style of the Principal and Fellows of Somerville College (hereinafter referred to as the COLLEGE), and by the same name shall have perpetual succession and a Common Seal with power to break, alter, and make anew the said Seal from time to time at their will and pleasure, and by the same name shall and may sue and be sued in all Courts and before all Justices of Us, Our Heirs, and Successors.

2. By the same name they shall have full power and capacity to accept, acquire, and hold any personal property whatsoever, and shall also without any further authority, by virtue of this Our Charter, have full power and capacity (notwithstanding the statutes of Mortmain and Charitable Uses, and freed from the restrictions thereof) to accept, acquire, and hold, not only all such land, houses, and buildings in Woodstock Road and in Walton Street in the City of Oxford as are referred to in the Petition, but also any other lands and hereditaments situate in Great Britain or Ireland not exceeding in the whole (exclusive of the said property in Woodstock Road and in Walton Street) the annual value of £10,000, such annual value to be calculated and ascertained at the period of respectively acquiring the same; and they shall have full power to dispose of by way of sale or lease, to exchange, mortgage, charge, improve, manage, develop, turn to account, or otherwise deal with, all or any part of such property, real or personal, belonging to the College, upon such terms and in such manner as they shall see fit, and also to do all other matters incidental or appertaining to a Body Corporate. Provided always that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to empower the College to dispose of, or deal with, its property in manner above mentioned without first obtaining such consent as would otherwise be required by law.

3. The College is hereby incorporated and shall be conducted with the following objects:

(a) To acquire and take over the property and liabilities of the Association hitherto known as Somerville College and hereinafter referred to as the Old Association,
(b) To provide for women and men who are members of the University of Oxford the protection and training of an Academic House, and, with that object, to carry on the work of the Old Association with such modifications and changes as may from time to time appear desirable.
(c) To invest the moneys of the College not immediately required in any of the securities authorized by the statutes for the time being of the College.
(d) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to advancing education, learning, and research in Oxford or elsewhere.

4. There shall be a Governing Body of the College (hereinafter called the Governing Body) as defined by the Statutes for the time being of the College (hereinafter called the Statutes).
The government of the College and the exercise of the powers conferred by this Charter of Incorporation shall be vested entirely in the Governing Body.

5. The persons whose names and addresses are set forth in the First Schedule hereto shall be the first Council [subsequently renamed as the Governing Body] of the College.

6. The Governing Body of the College as defined by the Statues of the College contained in the Second Schedule hereto shall, subject to the provisions of this Charter, have full power to make, and when made to alter Statutes touching the government of the College, the constitution of the Governing Body, the appointment and removal of the Principal, the Teaching Staff, and all other persons employed in or in connexion with the College, the admission and removal of students of the College, and any other matters whatsoever relating to the administration and management of the College. Provided that no alteration of the Statutes shall have any force or effect if it be repugnant to the provisions of this Charter or to the laws of the Realm or to the provisions of such Statutes of the University of Oxford as may from time to time be made to govern the relation of the Colleges to the University, nor until it shall have been approved by Us, Our Heirs or Successors in Council under the provisions of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923.

7. The Statutes of the College shall be those contained in the Second Schedule hereto, and it is hereby declared that the same are valid and within the powers conferred by the sixth Article hereof and shall remain in force unless and until they shall be altered in manner hereinbefore prescribed.

8. The Governing Body of the College in Governing Body meeting may from time to time amend, alter, or add to these Presents by a Special Statute in that behalf, and such alteration, amendment, or addition shall, when allowed by Us by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, become effectual so that these Presents shall thenceforward continue and operate as though they had been originally granted and made as so altered, amended, or added to. This Article shall apply to this Charter as altered, amended, or added to in manner aforesaid.

A Special Statute is a Statute passed at one Governing Body Meeting and confirmed at a subsequent meeting held not less than three weeks nor more than three calendar months after the former, provided that such Statute be passed at each meeting by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the members of Governing Body present and voting, and provided that a quorum be voting.

9. There shall be a Visitor of the College who shall be appointed in the manner prescribed by the Statutes contained in the Second Schedule hereto.

10. The income and property of the College, whencesoever derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the College as set forth in these Presents, and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, or bonus, or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to the persons who at any time are or have been members of the Governing Body of the College. Provided that this Article shall not prevent the payment in good faith of remuneration to the Principal, Tutors, Fellows, Lecturers, or any other Officers or Servants of the College in return for services actually rendered or to be rendered to the College, nor shall anything herein prevent any person holding any bona fide Scholarship, Studentship, or Fellowship, established or paid out of the funds of the College from being a member of the Governing Body of the College.

11. It shall not be a condition attached to the holding of any office of the College that the person holding such office or being a candidate therefor shall hold any particular religious opinion or subscribe to any form of religious doctrine. No Statute of the College and no By-law of Regulation of the Governing Body shall impose any religious test whatsoever upon any student of the College in connexion with the receipt of any benefit under the constitution or regulation of the College, nor require the attendance of any student upon any course of theological study or religious service to which any student or in the case of a minor the parents or guardians of such student shall object on conscientious grounds.

12. Any supplementary Charter granted by Us, Our Heirs or Successors, whether repealing amending or adding to the provisions of these Presents may be accepted by a meeting of the Governing Body of the College specially called for the purpose and shall be valid and binding upon the College and all the Governing Body thereof if accepted by the votes of two-thirds of the members of the Governing Body present at such Meeting.

13. And lastly We do by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors grant and declare that this Our Letters Patent or the enrolment thereof shall be in all things valid and effectual in law according to the true intent and meaning of the same and shall be recognized as valid and effectual by all Our Courts and Judges in Our Dominions and by all other officers persons and Bodies Politic and Corporate whom it doth concern and that the same shall be construed in the most favourable and beneficial sense and for the best advantage of the College as well in all Our several Courts of Record in Our Dominions as elsewhere notwithstanding any non-recital or mis-recital uncertainty or imperfection in this Our Charter.

In Witness whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent.

Witness Ourself at Westminster the seventh day of June in the seventeenth year of Our Reign.

By Warrant under the King’s Sign Manual

   (c) Ordinary Meetings. Meetings may be convened by the Principal or, in her absence, by the Vice-Principal or, in the absence of both, by the Senior Official Fellow present in Oxford, at any time, but no business shall be transacted or powers exercised which under the Statutes of the College or under any other enactment or Resolution made by the Governing Body ought to be transacted or exercised by the Governing Body at a Stated or Special Meeting.

The Vice-Principal or, in her absence, the Senior Official Fellow present shall with not less than four weeks' notice given in writing call together the members of the Governing Body present in Oxford to consider the election of a Principal. This meeting shall take place not earlier than the first or later than the fourth week of the succeeding term, and the meeting for the election shall take place not later than Trinity Term in the year of the Principal's retirement.
Foreseen Election (Resignation)

(b) If the Principal intends to resign before reaching the age of retirement she shall, if possible, give one year's notice of her intention in which case the meeting to consider the election of her successor shall be summoned in accordance with the procedure set out in section (a) above. If the Principal is unable to give one year's notice the procedure shall be as in section (c) below.

Unforeseen Election

(c) If a vacancy occurs in the office of the Principal through death or any unforeseen cause the Vice-Principal, or, in her absence, the Senior Official Fellow present in Oxford shall with not less than three weeks' notice given in writing call together the members of the Governing Body present to consider the election of a Principal. If no one obtains an absolute majority at the second vote, then a further vote or votes shall be taken at this or a later meeting with the object of obtaining an absolute majority for one candidate. Failure to obtain an absolute majority shall not, however, be held to invalidate an election.

Representations as to Research Fellowships
2. The Hebdomadal Council may in like manner make a representation to the Visitor if it shall appear that regard is not had by the College in electing Research Fellows to the requirements of the different branches of study pursued in the University, or that any of the provisions of Statute IV of these Statutes are not duly observed by the College.

Notice to the Principal

3. If any question shall arise upon which the Government Body is unable to agree, depending wholly or in part upon the construction of any of the Statutes of the College, the Governing Body or the Principal or any four members of the Governing Body may submit the same to the Visitor, and the Visitor shall thereupon declare the true construction of the Statutes with reference to the case submitted to him.

5. The Principal or any Fellow of the College, if aggrieved by any act of the Governing Body, may appeal to the Visitor and the Visitor shall adjudicate on the appeal, and may confirm, reverse, or vary the act or decision as he deems just.

6. The Visitor shall have power at any time at his discretion, on the application or request in writing of the Principal and any three members of the Governing body, absolutely to make valid and confirm anything done that might be done under the Statutes for the time being of the College, but which by reason of any irregularity or omission or other matter whatever preliminary thereto or connected therewith may be invalid or of doubtful validity, if in the judgment of the Visitor such irregularity or omission or other matter is not one of substantial importance with reference to the thing proposed to be made valid or confirmed.

XV. DOROTHY McCALMAN FUND

1. Whereas:
   i. Somerville College is the trustee of money accruing from the profits of the publication of the manuscripts of Winifred Holtby unpublished at the time of her death.
   ii. The said Winifred Holtby by her will made on 16th July 1932 declared as follows:
       "I appoint Vera Brittain to be my literary executor with full authority to publish any of my hitherto unpublished manuscripts and to draw profits from the same to recompense her for her trouble at the rate of 75 per cent. up to £1,000 and 10 per cent. after that; the surplus to be put into a fund to be given to the Governors of Somerville College for scholarships. If by chance the sum should be £3,000 or over, I wish my executors to endow a scholarship to be called the Dorothy McCalman Scholarship, to be offered to students who have already been earning their living for a period of three years or more before applying for entrance to College."

iii. The said Winifred Holtby died on 29th September 1935.

iv. A fund known as the Dorothy McCalman Fund was created in 1936 and its income used to provide scholarships or grants in accordance with the wishes of the deceased or, if no candidate who had earned her living for a period of three years or more before applying for admission to the College presented herself, to provide scholarships or exhibitions for undergraduates in financial need.

v. The Dorothy McCalman Fund was a fund to which the Scheme made by the said College in 1947 and amended in 1961 under the Universities and Colleges (Trusts) Act 1943 was applied. The value of the Fund is now £9,436 or thereabouts. The annual income of the Fund is now £427 or thereabouts.

vi. Between 1936 and 1961 only five candidates considered suitable for admission to the College fulfilled the conditions laid down by the testator. It is unlikely that such candidates will present themselves more frequently in future.

vii. The number of entrance scholarships and exhibitions which the College awards in any one year, together with a McCalman Scholarship or Exhibition or financial help to a Commoner of the College fulfilling the conditions laid down by the testator, can be provided by Trust Funds of the College other than the McCalman Fund.

viii. Money from the sale of the works of Winifred Holtby continuing to accrue over and above the sum of £3,000 necessary for the McCalman Fund, a second fund known as the Winifred Holtby Fund was created in 1938. Since 1948 this Fund has transferred such royalties on the works of Winifred Holtby as it received to the Trust Fund of the College known as the Scholarship Endowment Fund, 1926.

ix. The College considers that the intention of the testator will be met if-

(a) the College provides out of the Scholarship Endowment Fund a scholarship or exhibition whenever a suitable candidate fulfilling the necessary conditions shall present herself or appropriate financial help if such candidate is not made a scholar or exhibitioner;

(b) the income of the Dorothy McCalman Fund is used to maintain the general level of the educational work of the College by contributing towards the stipends of tutorial fellows or lecturers;
(c) Dorothy McCalman’s name is commemorated.

x. Miss Vera Brittain of 4 Whitehall Court, London, S.W. 1, as the testator’s literary and sole surviving executrix has expressed in writing her agreement with this opinion.

2. Now the College in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by the said Act and of all other powers enabling it but subject to the approval of Her Majesty in Council hereby enacts as follows:

i. That the income of the Dorothy McCalman Fund shall be applied to the provision of stipends for tutorial fellows or lecturers to be known as Dorothy McCalman Fellows or Lecturers.

ii. A Dorothy McCalman Fellow or Lecturer shall hold a tutorship or lecturership in History or Politics unless the Governing Body shall otherwise determine.

iii. The College shall provide sufficient financial help for a Scholar or Exhibitioner or Commoner who has earned her living for three years before applying for admission to the College and who could not enter without such financial assistance. This student shall be known as the Dorothy McCalman Scholar or Exhibitioner or Student as may be appropriate. The necessary money shall be made available from the Scholarship Endowment Fund of the College.

XVI. INTERPRETATION

1. Any reference in these Statutes to the revenue or revenues of the College or to income shall include the total sums appropriated in accordance with clause 5 of Statute IX.

2. In these Statutes, and any Byelaws made under them, words importing the feminine gender shall include the masculine and vice versa and, unless the context otherwise requires, words in the singular shall include the plural and words in the plural shall include the singular.

XVII. REPEAL AND AMENDMENT

1. The existing Statutes of the College and all amendments thereto are hereby repealed.
2. These Statutes shall be subject to alteration in the manner provided in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923.
We testify that the seal of the Somerville College, in the University of Oxford was affixed in our presence.
