

History Special, Further and Optional Subject Documents at Somerville

Listed below are the sets of documents relating to History Further, Optional and Special Subjects which can be borrowed from Somerville Library.

Please note that these are not stored on open shelves, and so must be requested at the Library desk or by email (library@some.ox.ac.uk).

The documents we have are only for some options, not all, but where we don't have documents we do have many of the books prescribed on faculty reading lists, and your first port of call should be WebLearn as documents for several subjects are available there online (<https://weblearn.ox.ac.uk/portal/hierarchy/humdiv/history/undergrad>).

Several of the sets listed are for subjects that are no longer taught, have changed name/syllabus or are suspended for the current academic year, but which may still be of use/relevance to those taking similar/newer topics on the same period/subject.

NB. Subjects are listed in alphabetical order under each sub-heading (Further, Optional then Special).
