

Ada Lovelace Bicentenary
CELEBRATING WOMEN IN COMPUTER SCIENCE
FRIDAY 16 OCTOBER 2015

Flora Anderson Hall, Somerville College

10.00 – 10.30 Registration and Welcome Coffee in Brittain–Williams Room

Talks and panel discussion in Flora Anderson Hall

10.30 – 10.40 Introduction by Dr Prochaska and Professor Porter

10.45 – 11.45 Jennifer Widom, Professor of Computer Science and School of Engineering Senior Associate Dean for Faculty and Academic Affairs, Stanford University

12.00 – 12.30 Cecilia Mascolo, Professor of Mobile Systems,
University of Cambridge

12.45 – 1.15 Uli Sattler, Professor in Computer Science,
University of Manchester

1.15 – 2.30 Lunch (not provided)

2.30 – 3.00 James Essinger, author of Ada Lovelace, A Female Genius: How Ada Lovelace started the Computer Age

3.00 – 4.00 Ursula Martin, CBE, Professor of Computer Science,
University of Oxford

4.00 – 5.00 Panel discussion

An exhibition profiling Ada Lovelace's literary life will be hosted in the College Library throughout the day — all are welcome to visit