

Further Particulars

Deputy Nursery Manager (maternity cover)

(Ref 900268)

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a fixed term maternity cover position in the College's Nursery - St Paul's. If you are an enthusiastic and caring person experienced and qualified in early years child-care, then we would like to hear from you.

The Deputy Manager plays a key role in creating a positive learning environment in which children can flourish as well creating effective and cooperative relationships with the children, their parents and staff. The right candidate will have proven skill in the planning and monitoring of play and educational activities that meet Ofsted requirements and Early Years Foundation Stage standards and in adopting and promoting best practice and equal opportunities for the children.

You will have a relevant Early Years qualification equivalent to or above a Level 3 NVQ, a CACHE Level 3 or BTEC Diploma as well as previous experience of working at a supervisory level in a comparable childcare setting. A good understanding of safeguarding, Ofsted requirements and health and safety relevant to childcare are also essential.

You will be confident and able to lead the Nursery team in the Manager's absence and deal with sensitive and confidential issues with parents appropriately and confidentially. Sound administrative skills, including a good standard of numeracy and literacy in English are also required in order to assist with record keeping requirements and budgets. In return we offer generous benefits and support with developing your ongoing professional development.

A current pediatric first aid certificate and basic food hygiene training would be an advantage but training will be provided. The successful candidate will be required to undertake an enhanced Disclosure and Barring (DBS) check before starting.

About Somerville College

Somerville is a forward-looking and adventurous College with a reputation of openness and inclusiveness. It is among the most international of the Oxford colleges that admit both undergraduate and graduate students, and is a friendly and diverse place which provides access to research, learning and the pursuit of excellence in all that we do. The current community comprises approximately 550 undergraduate and graduate students, many of whom live on site, and around 200 academic and support staff as well as a host of visiting academics, former members, conference and bed and breakfast guests.

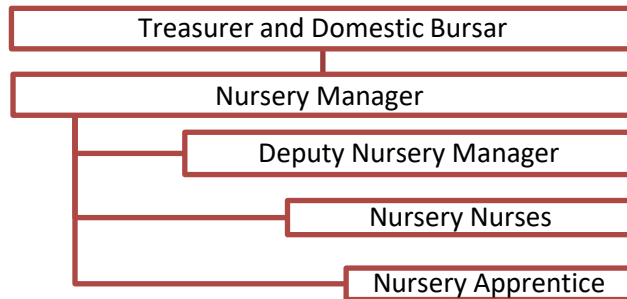

St Paul's Nursery

St Paul's Nursery was the first and remains one of the few nurseries to be run by an Oxford College. It was established by the Fellows of Somerville in 1974 to provide crèche facilities for their children and is now open to applicants not connected with Somerville.

The Nursery is registered to care for 16 children from three months to five years and receives funding for three and four year olds. It is open year-round from 9.00 – 5.00, Monday to Friday with a two week closure at Christmas and over the Easter and May Bank Holidays. The last Ofsted inspection, in 2015 was positive and praised the high quality interaction and individual attention that the children receive.

Nursery Organisation Chart

The Nursery team comprises a Nursery Manager, a Deputy Manager, four Nursery Nurses and an apprentice. The Nursery has a friendly, family atmosphere which is valued by all the children's' parents and carers. The Nursery team work closely together to provide high standards and the Nursery Nurses participate in planning and observations for the children. Informal parents' evenings and staff meetings are held regularly which staff are expected to attend. Training is always available and staff are encouraged to develop in areas of interest to them.

Equal Opportunities statement

The policy and practice of the University of Oxford and of Somerville College require that all staff are afforded equal opportunities within employment. Entry into employment and progression within employment will be determined only by personal merit and the application of criteria which are related to the duties of each particular post and the relevant salary structure. In all cases, ability to perform the job will be the primary consideration. Subject to statutory provisions, no applicant or member of staff will be treated less favourably than another because of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation. Where suitably qualified individuals are available, selection committees will contain at least one member of each sex.

Data Protection

All data supplied by candidates will be used only for the purposes of determining their suitability for the post and will be held in accordance with the principles of the Data Protection Act 1998 and the College's Data Protection Policy.

Pre-employment screening

If you are selected for the post, employment with the College will be conditional upon satisfying the following requirements.

1. Eligibility to work in the UK

The Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 makes it a criminal offence for employers to employ someone who is not entitled to work in the UK. We therefore ask applicants to provide proof of their right to work in the UK before employment can commence.

Please note that you will need to provide original documents and where any documents are not in English a certified translation will be required. Do not include these documents with your application. You will be sent a request for the relevant information at the appropriate point in the selection process.

2. References

You are asked to give us details of two people who have agreed to give a reference for you. If you have previously been employed your referees should be people who have direct experience of your work through working closely with you for a considerable period. If you have been employed, at least one of your referees should be your formal line manager from your most recent job. It is helpful if you can tell us how each referee knows you and your referees should not be related to you. Your referees will be asked to comment on your suitability for the post, to provide details of the dates of your employment, and of any disciplinary processes which are still 'live'.

We will assume that we may approach your referees at any stage unless you tell us otherwise, so please state clearly if you wish to be contacted before a referee is approached.

3. Medical fitness

Please note that any offer of employment will be conditional upon receipt of a completed pre-employment medical health assessment questionnaire and confirmation from the University of Oxford Occupational Health Service that the candidate is medically fit for the post (allowing for any reasonable adjustments that may be required, in line with the provisions of the Equality Act 2010).

The purpose of the pre-employment medical health questionnaire is to:

- (i) assess the candidate's medical capability to do the job for which they have applied:
- (ii) determine whether any reasonable adjustments or auxiliary aids may be required to accommodate any disability or impairment which they may have
- (iii) ensure that none of the requirements of the job for which they have applied would adversely affect any pre-existing health conditions the candidate may have.

The appointment will not commence until medical fitness for work, and any reasonable adjustments that may be required, is confirmed by the University Occupational Health Service.

4. Disclosure and barring service check

The successful candidate will be required to complete an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check.
