

non judgemental and confidential support (confidentiality: https:// www.some.ox.ac.uk/wp-content/ uploads/2020/09/Somerville-

College-Confidentiality-Policy-Julywhatever you need. Don't hesi- 429993. tate to get in touch with any of us about any issues you may be Unsure of who to contact help you find a solution.

you may have. They will all provide Welfare Officer, College Nurse or Junior Deans. (or the porters if non of the above are available)

Medical Non-emergency

2020.docx) to help you in any way hospital. Outside of the nurses hours see the port@some.ox.ac.uk. they can. We are all very knowl- Porters for first aid or ring 111 for advice. edgeable of the services available Appointments with the GP can be made by Unsure of who to contact they will tell you what to do.

Non-emergency but want help quickly

Check the timetable to see who is available and use the contact details to get in touch. Most of the time someone on the College Welfare Team will be available quickly. On the For non-urgent medical needs, see the College very rare occasion that this is not possible someone will be available at Nightline or Nurse for first aid, advice and referrals to the GP/ Samaritans. You can also contact the Senior Tutor or the JCR welfare team at peersupwithin Oxford to help you find contacting Observatory Medical Practice at 01865 All of the welfare team are trained so contact whoever you feel most comfortable speaking to. For anonymous support contact Nightline, Samaritans or use an anonymous email to contact the JCR welfare team. For support from students contact the JCR welfare officers, peer supporters or Junior Deans. For support from staff facing, nothing is too small or If you are unsure whether you or someone else is contact the College Welfare Officer, College Counsellor or Senior Tutor. For university insignificant of our time and noth-experiencing a medical emergency go to the wide support contact the Student union advice service or university counselling ing is too big for us to be able to College Nurse. Outside of her hours call 111 and service. For support outside the university Contact Nightline or Samaritans.

remembering that you've done noth wrong. Any support you receive will treated confidentially and we will assist with the reporting procedure if that's w you want to do.

Reporting a crime

To report a crime call the police on (emergencies), 101 or 01865 841148. Reporting Sexual Assault/Discriminati Harassment

Contact the Sexual Harassment and Violer Centre Support at portservice@admin.ox.ac.uk. Incidents college can be reported to the college De at deans.office@some.ox.ac.uk. Where or whenever the incident occurred the w fare team are all here to offer whate support you need.

	Covid-19
	If you develop symptoms
	If you experience any coronavirus symptoms (a high temperature, continuous cough or a loss/change of taste/smell) stay in your room, send an email to treasurer@some.ox.ac.uk and call the porters on 01865 270600 to let them know you're self isolating.
what	How to get tested
	You can book a coronavirus test kit on the government website (https://www.gov.uk/get-coronavirus-test) or by using the 999	university testing service: https://www.ox.ac.uk/coronavirus/
	health/covid-testing
tion/	NHS help/advice
	If you're in any doubt about anything related to coronavirus
	check the NHS and government websites for advice, updates
	and guidance as this information may become outdated.
in	https://www.nhs.uk/conditions/coronavirus-covid-19/
Dean
	https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/coronavirus-
wel-	outbreak-faqs-what-you-can-and-cant-do
ever	https://coronavirus.data.gov.uk/