

Welcome to the fifth Somerville Family Day! Every three years, we like to invite you to bring your families back to your college for an afternoon of learning, fun and friendship. We've got exclusive, accessible sessions with our tutors, as well as live music, delicious refreshments, and all sorts of activities for all the family. Here's everything going on:

WHAT'S ON?

Welcome from our Development Director, Sara Kalim
2:30 pm, Library Steps

Bouncy Castle

Bungee Trampoline

Climbing Wall

Snow Cones

Mad Scientist

Professional Face Painting and Glitter Artists

Live Music

Chocolate-Making
Workshop
Pre-booking required

MEET THE TUTORS

Sessions at 3 pm and 4 pm – prior booking required

Dr Grace Barnes
Clinical Lecturer in Microbiology & Infectious Disease
Title: Mischievous microbes and how to find them
Venue: The Chapel

Associate Professor Simon Kemp
Fellow and Tutor in French
Title: Harry Potter and the Translator's Headache
Venue: MTC Reception Area

Tiina Leinonen | Macha Trembley
Science Outreach Coordinator and DPhil Biochemistry Student
Title: Science in Action
Venue: In the quad – Hands-on science experiments drop by anytime

Dr Harini Desiraju
Research Fellow in Mathematics
Title: the truth about maps
Venue: MTC

Professor Annie Sutherland
Tutor in Old & Middle English
Title: Tell Me What I am! How to Read English Riddles
Venue: Mary Somerville Room

Professor Almut Suerbaum
Fellow and Tutor in German
Title: Exploring Medieval Manuscripts
Venue: The Library

With our heartfelt thanks to our generous sponsors for making Family Day free for everyone: Moria Black, 1968; Omar Davis, 1997; Simon Hodge 2006; David Lewsey, 1996; Eduard Ruijs, 1996; Cordelia Witton 2006

Information Point

Toilets

First Aid

Baby Changing

Baby Feeding Room