Part A: WELCOME

A1. Welcome to Somerville College

Somerville College, named for the mathematician and astronomer Mary Somerville (1780-1872), was founded as Somerville Hall in 1879 to open up opportunities for higher education in Oxford to women, who until 1920 were excluded from membership of the University. Men have been admitted since 1994. Somerville provides opportunities to pursue learning at the highest level to all those capable of making good use of them. We pursue academic excellence by encouraging intellectual curiosity, critical engagement, and the development of the analytical skills of individual students, and we support teaching and learning through the provision of excellent resources. The insistence of the founding committee that Somerville be non-denominational and non-discriminatory on the basis of religion was ground-breaking. It has inspired an on-going ethos of openness, inclusiveness and a willingness to be unconventional and consider change. In particular, in the 21st century, Somerville is a community that upholds values of Equality, Diversity and Inclusion. Somervillian traits also include a concern about access to learning and research for all, irrespective of background, an atmosphere of acceptance and a positive view of diversity. We hope you will be motivated and inspired by these aims and will make good use of the opportunities presented to you in your pursuit of academic excellence at Somerville.

A2. Registration and signing in

The University requires all students to register online before the start of each academic year of their course. For courses which started in Michaelmas Term, registration must be complete by the start of that term, with the same pattern applying for courses which started in Hilary and Trinity terms.

Each student has a personal online registration page, which can be accessed through the online Student Self Service facility. Registration opens on 1 September and closes at 4 pm on Friday of 1st Week those who fail to register by the deadline given risk losing their access to university email and library services. Registering releases loans provided by the Student Loans Company (SLC) and associated organisations, and may also be required for the release of scholarships and awards from other bodies.

It is important that your details, including those of your emergency contacts, and kept up to date and it is your responsibility to ensure they are kept up to date.

PART B: COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY RULES, REGULATIONS AND POLICIES

All students should familiarise themselves with the College Rules and the Deans' Regulations, which are included within this handbook.

Policies and regulations published by Somerville College and the University form the basic ground rules for living and learning in the collegiate University community, including:

Equality and Diversity
Confidentiality Guidance
Data Protection Policy
Freedom of Speech
Harassment Policy and Procedure
Emergency Procedure
Library and use of IT Rules
Deans' Regulations and Decanal Disciplinary Procedure

The student handbooks can also be found at the bottom of this webpage.

These policies and others can be found on the Policies webpage.

B1. College Rules

As at other universities, a person accepting admission to the College thereby accepts an obligation to obey the College Rules and those of the University and to pay such fees, dues and charges as the College or University may lawfully determine. The undertaking to obey these rules forms part of the Somerville College Student Contract, which all students are required to sign before entering.

- i. Those who have accepted a College place but have to withdraw for any reason should give at least three months' notice. Failing this, they will be expected to pay the fees and charges for the ensuing term. The same applies to any Junior Member withdrawing after beginning their course. In the case of absence through illness for long periods, a partial remission of accommodation charges may be made.
- ii. Any Junior Member who, in the course of their academic career, is planning or experiences any material change in their personal circumstances must discuss it with their Personal Tutor and with the Principal, Treasurer, or Senior Tutor.
- iii. Academic work must have the first claim on the time and effort of all Junior Members; students are expected to work to the best of their ability, to attend all academic appointments, and to produce all required written work punctually.
- iv. In order to maintain appropriate peace and quiet in the College community, Junior Members must accept such restrictions as the Dean, after consultation with members of the College, may from time to time impose.
- v. If a Junior Member fails to meet the standard of application and behaviour expected, the College's procedures for academic and decanal discipline may be invoked. These, together with appropriate complaints and appeal procedures, shall be kept under review by the Governing Body and promulgated by means of the College Handbook, web-site and other appropriate media.

- vi. The Governing Body reserves the right to require withdrawal by any Junior Member whose membership, whether for want of industry or any other stated reason, is considered by the Governing Body to be no longer desirable.
- vii. All Junior Members have an obligation to keep themselves informed by checking their pigeonholes and their College email daily during term time (occasionally during the vacations where practically possible), and checking for notices in the Porters' Lodge, in the Front Hall, and on the College website.
- viii. It is the responsibility of all students, undergraduate and graduate, to make sure that they can be easily contacted at any time. When not in Oxford, therefore, Junior Members have an obligation to inform the College authorities in advance if they cannot be contacted within three or four weeks over the Vacation.

All undergraduates are automatically members of the Junior Common Room (JCR) and are encouraged to play a full part in its activities and governance. Graduate students are members of the Middle Common Room (MCR). All 4th year undergraduates may submit an application to become a member of the MCR.

Decisions about the College and its future are taken by the Governing Body, whose members are individually and severally responsible for the 'direction and management of the affairs of the College'. The Governing Body (GB) consists of the Principal and Fellows, and is the ultimate authority within the College. A list of members is available in the Appendix. The JCR President and Treasurer and the MCR President attend for the un-reserved business of GB meetings. Governing Body also has a number of sub-committees, which are described in the by-laws, most of which have student representatives: Education Committee, Finance Committee, Finance Sub-Committee, Standing Committee, IT Committee, EDI Working Group.

B2. University Regulations

University Regulations are additional to the Rules and By-laws of individual colleges; student members are therefore expected to observe two sets of (complementary) disciplinary regulations. Those studying for degrees which are regarded as professional qualifications may also be expected to observe codes of conduct that have been drawn up by the University in consultation with the external bodies concerned; details will be provided by the relevant departments. Note also that University and College Disciplinary codes do not supplant the law of the land, and local government by-laws, all of which students must observe (like everybody else).

University regulation and policies: for guidance on all University regulations, codes of conduct and policies

Student conduct: general student conduct and the powers of the University Proctors

Complaints and academic appeals: guidance on what steps can be taken and where to approach, as well as the appeals procedure

University Student Handbook: contains essential information, covering a range of issues including welfare, fitness to student and examination and course requirements

PART C: ACADEMIC MATTERS

C1: Being in ‘good academic standing’

While Somerville encourages students to take a full part in the College community and the wider University community, your continued membership of the College is conditional on being in ‘good academic standing’. Academic work must have the first claim on the time and effort of all Junior Members. You will be deemed to be in ‘good academic standing’ if you meet all the requirements below:

- i. Attend all tutorials, classes and other required academic commitments, including meetings with their personal tutor(s), except where permission on adequate grounds is obtained, preferably in advance, from the tutor(s) concerned;
- ii. Produce assignments (essays, problem sheets, reports of laboratory work, translations, etc) and sit Collections with the regularity required by your tutor(s), except where permission on adequate grounds is obtained, preferably in advance, from the tutor(s) concerned;
- iii. Pass the First Public Examination, and any subsequent public exams, in their first sitting;
- iv. Produce work to the best of your ability, taking into account each student’s particular level of ability;
- v. Maintain communication with tutors and members of college staff, usually in person or via email.

In addition to maintaining good academic standing, you are expected to meet the College’s and University’s standards and requirements of behaviour, which are explained in Parts B, C and D of this document.

C2: Termly reports

Graduate Supervisors (or Course Directors for those on a taught course) will write a report on each student’s work each term, available through Graduate Supervision Reporting (GSR) in Student Self Service. This page also contains guidelines and explanations on the reporting system.

C3: College Advisors

In addition to any Supervisor or Course Director appointed by departments and faculties, each graduate student is assigned a College Advisor at Somerville who acts as a point of contact within College for any academic issues and/or welfare concerns. New graduate students will be given the name of their College Advisor at the start of term by the Academic Office, and urged to contact their advisors personally (e-mail is best). So far as possible, the Advisor will be a member of the Department or Faculty to which their advisee is affiliated, and so able to give informal advice about administrative, financial or personal matters of concern, as well as to discuss academic progress. It is important to note however that the Supervisor is formally responsible for a graduate’s academic progress. College Advisors are not intended to be Co-Supervisors. They are not expected, for example, to read or comment on a student’s thesis. Rather, they are there to act as a focal point for an individual student’s relationship with the College and, where necessary, to support a student in their relationship with the relevant department or faculty.

C4: Progress

Academic progress for graduate students comes predominantly from the student’s Supervisor through their faculty or department. In addition to Graduate Supervision Reporting system (GSR) reports, graduate students should consult their faculty or department's Director of Graduate Studies (DGS) for academic feedback. In addition, graduate students are invited to attend Graduate Review meetings with the Principal. These are optional meetings, including a lunch or tea in college, which gives the students the opportunity to raise concerns, ask questions or provide feedback about their course. Students are also welcome to arrange to see the Principal individually by appointment through her Executive Assistant (70630, principals.office@some.ox.ac.uk).

C5: Fitness to Study

This section is being updated and will be updated in the handbook shortly.

C6: Prizes

Archibald Jackson Prizes are awarded to those achieving a Distinction in their final degree. The value of a prize is currently £100 and it may be awarded in any subject.

C7: Other Awards

Graduates can apply for other awards including:

- Travel and Special Project Grants
- Catherine Hughes Grants
- Alice Horsman Grants for Finalists
- Grants for Course Materials and Equipment
- Grants for Medical Equipment (BMBCH students)
- Sports and Wellbeing Awards
- Language Awards

Full details are available on the College website or from the Scholarships and Funding Officer.

PART D: DECANAL MATTERS

The College Statutes state that the Principal is responsible for the discipline of students, ‘provided that no student’s name shall be removed from the books of the College except by the decision of the Governing Body in a Stated Meeting and that such decision shall be final’. In practice, the Dean normally exercises the Principal’s jurisdiction over the discipline of students. The Dean’s Office’s responsibilities include overseeing the general wellbeing of all Junior Members, providing guidance and support, helping to regulate behaviour, and ensuring that the needs and interests of all members of the College are respected. However, the Dean may suspend rights of access to all or any specified College premises and facilities as necessary (even in a non-disciplinary situation) to protect the College or any of its members, or as an interim measure pending further investigation or disciplinary proceedings. A Junior Member convicted of a criminal offence capable of attracting a sentence of imprisonment may be rusticated, sent down, or expelled by the Governing Body, after due opportunity to make written representations.

The Dean’s Office can be contacted via email at deans.office@some.ox.ac.uk. During term time, the Student Welfare Advisors are also available via mobile on 07850 784964 7pm - 7am on weekdays, and at all times on the weekend. The Porter’s Lodge can be contacted using 01865 270600 at any time (except during the Christmas shutdown period).

All members of College are expected to show consideration for one another. The Dean will impose penalties for disruptions in College, particularly excessive noise, damage to property, and other forms of bad behaviour, and will work with all members of College to foster a community in which everyone is treated with courtesy and respect. Violations of the rules set out below may be monitored by the Porters or by Housekeeping staff, and, if necessary, referred to the Dean. Note that these rules are not exhaustive, and may be added to, interpreted, and adapted as the Dean sees fit.

D1: Code of Discipline

1. All students sign an undertaking to abide by the College Rules and Regulations on entering Somerville. Please note that By-Law 19 (j) requires all Junior Members to keep themselves informed by checking their pigeonholes and their College email daily, checking for notices in the Porters’ Lodge, on College noticeboards, and on the College website.
2. The Code of Discipline is reviewed annually by consultation between the Dean and other members of the College, and is approved by Standing Committee. Substantive changes will be reported to Governing Body.
3. The Dean may impose penalties which are proportionate to the circumstances of the breach of discipline and the subject.

Serious Breaches of Discipline

4. No Student shall:
- (a) commit any criminal offence proscribed by statute or the common law;
 - (b) intentionally or recklessly disrupt or attempt to disrupt teaching or study or research or the administrative, sporting, social or other activities of the College in a manner contrary to the College's Code of Practice on Freedom of Speech (available on the College website), or disrupt or attempt to disrupt the lawful exercise of the freedom of speech by members, students, and employees of the College or by visiting speakers, or obstruct or attempt to obstruct any employee or agent of the College in the performance of their duties;
 - (c) intentionally or recklessly occupy, use, appropriate or attempt to occupy, use or appropriate any property or facilities of the College, its members or its visitors except as may be authorised by the College authorities or the relevant member/s or visitor/s;
 - (d) intentionally or recklessly forge or falsify expressly or impliedly any University or College certificate or document or knowingly make false statements concerning standing or results obtained in any examination;
 - (e) intentionally or recklessly engage in any activity likely to cause physical injury or serious mental harm to others or to impair their safety;
 - (f) intentionally or recklessly engage in violent, indecent, disorderly or threatening or offensive behaviour, or unlawful language;
 - (g) engage in harassment, including sexual harassment, bullying or victimisation as defined in the College's Harassment and Bullying Policy;
 - (h) intentionally or recklessly decline or refuse to obey any reasonable lawful instruction of an officer or employee of the College;
 - (i) intentionally or recklessly decline to disclose their name and other relevant details to an officer or an employee or agent of the College, University or of any college in circumstances where it is reasonable to require that that information be given;
 - (j) possess, use, offer, sell, or give to any person items (including drugs and weapons), the possession, use, or provision of which is illegal;
 - (k) use dishonest means in any examination, or in fulfilling any academic obligation; and/or
 - (l) engage in any other conduct which a reasonable person would consider likely to bring the College into disrepute among reputable people if the conduct in question were disclosed to such people.

Noise

5. Noise, however generated, which is a nuisance to others, may be a matter for complaint and disciplinary action. Please be especially considerate at night and in or near student accommodation where people may be trying to work or sleep. Anyone who is upset by undue noise is under no obligation to confront the noisemaker in person if they prefer not to. They may contact the Porters' Lodge in the first instance, and, where appropriate, the Student Welfare Advisors.

6. Audio and video equipment must not be played in undergraduate rooms, except through headphones, between 11.00pm (midnight on Fridays and Saturdays) and 8.00am. They may be played quietly from 8.00am to 11.00pm, but neighbours' need to work must be respected. Audio and video equipment may be used in common rooms quietly at any time, although anyone disturbed by the noise may ask that they are switched off.
7. Musical instruments may not be played in your room except through headphones, or with the Dean's permission.
8. The gym door must be closed when the gym is in use. Noise in the gym must not be heard beyond the room itself. Please wear headphones if you wish to listen to music in the gym; the use of speakers is not allowed.
9. Mobile telephones must be switched off or on silent mode, with vibrate mode turned off in the Library, during meetings with the Principal, in tutorials, classes, seminars or lectures, in College committees, in Chapel, during Collections, and on any other occasion when they may disrupt the academic life, administrative work, or communal social life of the College.

College Buildings and Grounds

10. Smoking (including electric cigarettes) is not permitted within College rooms or anywhere within the College curtilage and incurs an automatic fine of £50.
11. Please respect College property at all times. Those who cause damage will be charged to have it put right. Charges are also imposed for cleaning up unreasonable mess, including litter on the quad and vomit. Where individual perpetrators cannot be identified, collective charges may be imposed on the residents of corridors of buildings, or the MCR/JCR.
12. Ball games may not be played in College, except that croquet and boules may be played on the Penrose lawn, and Frisbee (static, not ultimate) may be played on the main lawn from 1 pm to 9 pm. Riding (bicycles, etc.) and skating (skateboards, rollerblades, scooters etc.) are forbidden throughout the College. Battery powered/electric personal transporters and scooters are not allowed in College. E-bikes may be brought into College and parked in the designated cycle spaces but they must not be charged on site. This includes charging by means of plugging the e-bike into any electrical outlet or independent power charging source. Individuals who fail to follow this policy will be asked to remove the vehicle from college/stop charging the vehicle, as applicable. Repeated failures to follow this policy may lead to disciplinary proceedings.
13. Students may not fly drones in the College.
14. Please avoid dropping litter; use the bins provided. The common rooms can be charged when excessive rubbish is left on the quad.
15. The College gardeners work hard to keep the quads and lawns attractive. Please do not walk on the grass in wet weather, and always avoid stepping on verges and flowerbeds, including the corners of borders or lawns. In warm weather, you may walk and sit on the lawns, except in Darbishire Quad and the Fellows' Garden, but you must ensure that this does not cause any disturbance, in particular near the Library. In Trinity Term, Chapel Lawn is reserved for the use of those taking examinations, who do not wish to talk.
16. Undergraduates may not keep animals of any kind in their rooms, or any common areas.
17. Flags may not be hung out of student bedroom windows.

Guests, Gatherings and Events

18. Guests using College facilities must be accompanied by a member of the College. College members are responsible for the behaviour of their guests and may be held responsible for any breaches of this Code committed by their guest and subject to penalties under the Non-Academic Misconduct Disciplinary Procedure as if they had committed the breach themselves. This may, in relevant and appropriate cases, include fines for smoking or damage to property.
19. Non-Somervillians are not permitted to use the College gym facilities or the College Library (except by advance appointment with the Librarian).
20. College Formal Dinners (including Guest Nights, Special Guest Nights, Michaelmas Dinner, Foundation Dinner and Subject Dinners) are opportunities for the whole College to dine together. It is important that these occasions are enjoyable and orderly for all attendees. You must therefore maintain a high standard of respectful and responsible behaviour at all times. In particular, once you have taken your seat, you should only get up when high table enter or leave; at the end of the meal; or, if necessary, to use the toilets. If you do need to get up during the meal for legitimate reasons, you should attend to your requirements and return directly to your seat, without pausing at other tables. Once the Dinner has finished, you should leave the Hall promptly and be considerate to others whilst leaving. Impolite behaviour towards catering and waiting staff will not be tolerated.
21. Gatherings in student rooms must be limited to no more than eight persons.
22. Residents may have no more than one visitor in their room between 10:45pm (11:45pm on Fridays and Saturdays) and 8:00am. In accordance with regulation 18 above, guests using College facilities must be accompanied by a member of the College. To enable us to comply with fire regulations, residents will need to follow the College's current procedure, which is that overnight guests must be signed in at the Lodge on each occasion.
23. All meetings and parties must end by 10.45pm (11.45pm on Fridays and Saturdays).
24. Overnight guests may not stay more than two nights consecutively, and may not stay for more than two nights during a seven-day period. Note: this applies even when a guest is visiting more than one member of the College; that is, they may not spend two nights with one and then two nights with another. There are no official College guest rooms, but unoccupied rooms may be available at a charge (contact the Bursary for details).
25. The Decanal Team must be informed in advance of any gatherings of more than twenty people. This does not include Somerville or University Committee meetings where rooms can be booked with the bursary via the two links below:

Room booking student societies

Book Park 5 for a student society lecture

For large events, please use the link below. You must follow the regulations contained on that webpage. In particular, please note that external groups, including University societies, should not use this link but contact events@some.ox.ac.uk instead to apply.

Request a room to host a large student event

Please note charges may be applicable for room hire and events unless rooms are being booked for a College society.

26. Payment for room bookings (where applicable) will be arranged through the Bursary on approval of the application. Please note that if payment is not received in advance of the event, the College reserves the right to cancel the booking. Where necessary the Bursary will refer the application to the Decanal Team for approval before confirmation of the booking is made.

27. Somerville members may only book rooms for events that are primarily for members of Somerville College. Somerville members may apply to the Bursary to book a room for a University society as long as there is a Somervillian on the committee; in either case the person making the booking must be present at the event and is responsible for seeing that regulations are observed, the meeting ends in good time, the room is left in good order, the room is locked and the key is returned to the Lodge.
28. Outside bodies wishing to book rooms should contact the Events Department, and bookings should not be made through Somervillian contacts.
29. Permission to use Vaughan Junior Common Room: must be obtained from the JCR President. (Meetings of the JCR, its committees or its formally constituted societies and groups, are booked only through the JCR, but the Dean is informed of all meetings.)
30. The MCR can be booked through the MCR President.
31. If not in use for lectures, meetings, or other academic activities, Flora Anderson Hall may be available between the hours of 9.00am and 11.00pm for quiet activities only.
32. Chapel bookings can be made via the website and in liaison with the Chapel Director. On some occasions, the permission of the Principal may also be required.
33. No informal barbeques may be held in College at any time.
34. Bops and Parties with music and/or dancing may only be held in public rooms in College and where applicable licenses from the local council may be sourced (not in undergraduate rooms) with the permission of the Deans. Meetings must be of University or College societies or groups only; no public meetings may be held in College.
35. At all meetings, the College's Code of Practice on Freedom of Speech must be adhered to. This Code is available on the College website.
36. Subject to the College's obligation to support and uphold the right to free speech and the right of individuals to equal treatment under the law, the College complies with its legal obligation to have due regard for the risk of people being drawn into terrorism when considering events and meetings taking place in College.
37. Fines and charges may be imposed by the Dean for any damage to property in or near the rooms booked.
38. No event involving alcohol may take place without the prior permission of the Catering and Conference Manager, who is the Designated Premises Supervisor and handles all requests to hold events in College. Please note that 21 days' notice is required for events requiring the approval of local authorities.
39. Alcohol may not be consumed in the Quad.
40. JCR amplifying equipment will be issued for undergraduate use only with the signed permission of the Dean, and may be used for no more than two events in any one term beyond the JCR's official events.
41. There are both legal and practical restrictions on serving food. Anyone wishing to do so must consult the Catering & Conference Manager in advance.

Safety and Emergencies

42. All roofs, balconies, and parapets of College buildings are out of bounds: going on to them is a major safety hazard.
43. Climbing on trees on College grounds is also forbidden: such climbing is a major safety hazard.
44. The pond is out of bounds. The pond must not be interfered with and due care must be taken around the pond.
45. In an emergency of any kind, the Porters' Lodge should be contacted in the first instance, by telephone (01865 (2)70600) or in person.

46. If you suspect the presence of intruders, you should immediately report this to the Lodge, who will contact the police. Other matters that you need to report to the police should also be reported to the Dean (e.g., cases of theft).
47. You should make yourself familiar with the fire regulations posted on your staircase and in your room. You will be required to attend a fire safety lecture in College at the beginning of your first year. You must vacate your room when the fire alarm sounds, including for fire drills which are held at least twice a year, unless you have been notified in advance that you do not need to evacuate. You must not re-enter the building until told that it is safe to do so by a porter or student welfare adviser.
48. Fire safety equipment must not be tampered with; violations will be reported to the Dean.
49. You should ensure that you follow the College's electrical equipment regulations, a copy of which will have been sent to you with your tenancy agreement. The UK uses a type G 3 pin plug; no other plug type should be inserted into the electrical socket faceplate. Plug adaptors should be to BS 8546 standards only. Adaptors found not to comply will be removed. For any questions regarding electrical appliance use, please contact maintenance.desk@some.ox.ac.uk.
50. Personal electric heaters must not be brought into College. A limited number of approved heaters may be made available in periods of severe cold.
51. Candles and similar items (i.e., joss sticks/incense) may not be lit in rooms or common areas.
52. Do not leave items on windowsills; they create a hazard to anyone passing or working beneath.
53. Accidents on College premises should be reported to the Porters' Lodge, to reduce the likelihood of recurrence. The Porters will notify the first-aider on duty, if required. The College gardeners endeavour to keep paths clear of snow, ice and leaves. Please inform the Porters' Lodge of any areas that may have been missed and arrangements will be made to clear them.
54. Each JCR and MCR member may obtain a free personal security alarm from the JCR Welfare Officer or MCR Welfare Officer. In addition, some alarms are available for borrowing from the Lodge.
55. Your Access card allows you to pass through all doors in College to which you have right of entry. Please ensure that doors and gates have shut after you have passed through them. You must not let anyone else through a gate or door after you if they do not have the relevant Access Card: to do so poses a significant security risk.
56. Access Cards are issued by the Porters' Lodge. You must never lend your Access Card to anyone, not even to a Somervillian. Loss or theft of your room key or Access Card must be reported to the Lodge. Room keys should be left at the Lodge during vacations and collected when you return. If your key is taken home during vacation then a fine may be levied to cover the cost of a replacement. Rooms are often used during vacation for commercial purposes. Under no circumstances should keys be duplicated.
57. Whenever you leave your room, even for a short period of time, always lock it. Be careful to close (and where applicable, lock) windows, especially on the ground floor. Be sensible about your possessions; never leave a purse, wallet, handbag, laptop or phone unattended in the Library, outside Hall, or in other public areas.
58. Please note that the College has a number of CCTV cameras located to cover entrances and outside areas only. The cameras are operated in accordance with strict guidelines.

Vehicles

59. Bicycles should be left in bicycle racks; note that the racks under the Bursary are reserved for SCR and members of staff only. Bicycles may not be ridden in College, and must not be left in the traffic entrance, under the Lodge archway, in rooms, common areas or within College buildings. Offending bicycles are liable to be removed without warning.

60. You are required to register your bicycle at the Lodge. From time to time the College will conduct a bicycle cull and unregistered bicycles will be removed.
61. Motorcycles and cars may not be brought into college on any occasion. There is no car parking space available for undergraduates or graduates within the College or surrounding external accommodation locations.
62. The City Authorities permit luggage to be loaded and unloaded at the gates; a notice obtainable from the Lodge should be displayed in vehicles while loading or unloading.

Publicity and Campaigning and Social Media

63. Posters may be displayed in College as long as they comply with the law (but only on designated noticeboards).
64. The pigeonholes may only be used for announcements of events, not for distribution of campaigning material. The exception is at local or national elections, when each candidate or political party may 'pidge' one leaflet to each student; this must be carried out by a Somervillian, and at a time convenient to the Lodge.
65. Political canvassers are not permitted to operate in College; they must not knock on doors or approach College members on the premises.
66. Hustings meetings will be organized for the airing of views. For details, and guidelines on posting and 'pidging', please contact your common room President.
67. Posters should only be put on designated notice boards, not on doors, walls or buildings. You should not remove or cover any College information on general notice boards, especially health and safety information.
68. You must not invite or allow any commercial activity (such as filming, selling goods or insurance, or commercial performers) to take place in College without the Dean's approval. If you are troubled by such activity, report it to the Lodge.
69. Students are advised to use social media responsibly and should be aware that it is possible for their digital footprint seriously to compromise their reputation. Online bullying and harassment will be taken extremely seriously.

College Library

70. The Library Rules are given on the College Library website. Breach of the Library Rules constitutes a breach of this Disciplinary Code.

Information Technology

71. Computing resources must be used in accordance with the regulations set out at here: <https://it.some.ox.ac.uk/it-rules-and-regulations/>. Violations of these rules will be monitored by the IT Systems Manager in the first instance, and, if necessary, referred to the Dean.

D2: Decanal Disciplinary Procedures

These procedures are now set out in the Non-Academic Misconduct Disciplinary Procedure. This can be found on the College website.

PART E: FINANCIAL MATTERS

E1: Advice and Help

A comprehensive Guide to Student Finance is issued to all students early in Michaelmas Term and is also available at <https://www.ox.ac.uk/students/fees-funding>. One of the responsibilities of the College Accountant, Damian Clements, is to give advice to students on financial matters, particularly in cases of financial difficulty. If you have money worries, potentially serious or not, or if you just feel that you could benefit from some advice about how to handle your financial affairs, please arrange to see him. Damian may be contacted by email (college.accountant@some.ox.ac.uk) or by visiting the Treasury. Anything that you say and any information that you provide will be treated in confidence.

E2: Accommodation charges

Student accommodation charges are discussed by the Treasurer in Hilary Term with representatives of the JCR and MCR. The final charges for the following year are then reviewed by Finance Committee and agreed by Governing Body every Trinity Term. Undergraduates will be communicated with during the summer vacation with guidance on the fees and accommodation charges to which they will be subject. Fees and charges, known as battels, are billed prior to the start of each term, which together with any unpaid balances brought forward from the previous term must be paid by Friday of 1st week. A second battels statement (bill) is circulated before the end of 3rd week, incorporating miscellaneous charges (including vacation residence). This must be paid by Friday of 4th week. If for any reason you are unable to pay by this date, you must contact the College Accountant before the due date. More often than not, special arrangements for delayed payments can be made, where justified by circumstance. However, failure to contact the Treasury to make such arrangements will be taken as implying unwillingness, rather than inability, to pay. The College reserves the right to charge interest on unpaid battels balances.

If action of this sort is taken against any student for non-payment of battels, and they believe that this has been done unfairly, the College's procedure for Complaints and Appeals may be invoked; further information is available under section 'Complaints, Appeals and Discipline' at <https://www.some.ox.ac.uk/policies/>.

E3: Catering charges

The catering credit for students living in College is £100 per term. The way this works is that a £100 charge is added to your first battels statement each term and is matched by an equal credit on your food card. You will be able to spend it on food and drink in Hall (including guest nights) as well as in The Terrace Bar.

This is essentially a minimum spend on catering, and makes a significant contribution to maintaining the College's catering facilities for everyone. (Similar schemes in other colleges ask for contributions of between £120 and £200 per term.)

If you are not living in College accommodation, this does not apply to you.

If you decide not to add any further amounts to your food card each term, this sum of £100 is equivalent to eating one meal in Hall approximately every 3 to 4 days, leaving you to choose where you eat for the rest of your meals (in Hall, out of College or self-catering).

For regular use of the Catering service, it is recommended that at least £200 is paid into your College food account at the commencement of each term. This and subsequent top-ups of your food account will be possible via an online payment facility or at the Treasury.

Please note that your College food account may not be active for the first few days after you arrive at Somerville, in which case a debit card can be used in the Pantry. Food cards must be in credit to be used to buy food in either the pantry or the Terrace.

Any unspent credit remaining in your food account at the end of a term will be carried forward to the next term. However, you will not be able to reclaim any unspent balance when you leave College at the end of your course.

Exemptions from the catering credit will only be considered on medical or religious grounds. To be considered for an exemption, you should write to or e-mail Katherine Gardiner, Treasurer (treasurer@some.ox.ac.uk), with details of why you think you should be exempt, by Monday of 1st week in Michaelmas Term. All requests for exemptions will be treated in the strictest of confidence and will be considered by a small panel of senior staff, taking into account individual circumstances, the existing provision of menu choice and the capacity of the kitchen to meet many dietary requirements by arrangement.

PART F: HEALTH, WELLBEING AND WELFARE

Somerville has invested considerable effort in creating an ethos of support for its students, and has devised its welfare structures with this in mind. Below you will find a long list of College officers who can assist you if and when you require support. The College's efforts are motivated by a desire that all our students should be happy and healthy for their own sake but also a strong belief that healthy and happy students perform better in their academic work, as members of the community, and in their extra-curricular pursuits.

Those College Officers with welfare responsibilities must sometimes exchange information about students in order to exercise their legal duty carefully, but in doing so they have specific codes of practice to ensure that they comply with legislation on data protection and confidentiality. More information about confidentiality can be found in the Somerville College Confidentiality Policy available here.

Although your Personal Tutor may be your first port of call, if for any reason you prefer not to approach your tutor, (for example, because you don't want to involve your academic tutors in any personal, practical or financial difficulties that you are experiencing), the Student Welfare Lead, Jo Ockwell, or the Senior Tutor, Dr Stephen Rayner, are available to give advice on any personal or practical problem, or to suggest other people to whom you might talk (jo.ockwell@some.ox.ac.uk or senior.tutor@some.ox.ac.uk). All such approaches will be confidential, unless you give consent for the matter to be discussed with others or disclosure is required to protect your safety or the safety of others. It should be stressed that your tutors and other members of the welfare team are not professional counsellors, and are not substitutes for the professional help available through the University Counselling Service.¹

Student Welfare Advisors

The Student Welfare Advisors are available overnight and at weekends in term time, to assist students with crisis issues. One of the Student Welfare Advisors is on duty every evening, night and weekend during term (0th – 9th Week in Hilary and Trinity Terms, 0th – 10th Week in Michaelmas Term). They can be contacted by mobile on 07850 784964 or by email at student.welfare.advisor@some.ox.ac.uk. If you need urgent crisis support, we advise that you use the phone as emails are not monitored 24/7. If you need advice during the day however, you should normally contact your Tutor, the Student Welfare Lead, or the Senior Tutor. For emergencies, or complaints about others' behaviour or noise, contact the Porter on duty in the Lodge in the first instance (70600).

College Doctors

All students should register with a doctor in Oxford as permanent patients for the duration of their course. The College Doctors, Dr Paul Ch'en and Dr Alice Young are members of a partnership with which the College has a special arrangement for the care of its students and other members. They may be seen by appointment at the Jericho Health Centre, New Radcliffe House, Walton Street, close to the College, 01865 429993.

College Nurse

The College Nurse is available to see students about medical issues on weekdays during term time. Her office is Darbishire 16 – please see the notice on her door for her availability or contact her by email at pml.somervillenurse@nhs.net.

¹ <http://www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare/counselling/>

First aid

There are a number of qualified first-aiders in college. In an emergency, contact the Lodge (70600). See also <http://www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare>

College Counsellor

The College Counsellor is available to see Somerville students in college. Please contact her at College.Counsellor@some.ox.ac.uk for an appointment.

Principal

The Principal, Catherine Royle, is the Head of the College and chairs Governing Body and most other College committees, including Education Committee. An appointment may be made to see the Principal at any time to seek help or advice by contacting her Executive Assistant (principals.office@some.ox.ac.uk).

Peer Supporters

A number of students have been trained by the University Counselling Service to offer peer support. All conversations with them are confidential unless disclosure is required to protect your safety or the safety of others. The names of the current peer supporters can be found on the JCR Facebook page and on posters placed on noticeboards around college. The University's website on Student Health and Welfare (<http://www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare>) provides access to a wide range of health and welfare activities including advice about physical and mental health services, hardship, abuse and bereavement.

F1: Harassment Policy and Procedure

The College's Harassment Policy and Procedure can be found on the college website.

See also <https://www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare>.

PART G: DISABILITY SERVICES

The University's Disability Advisory Service has much useful information on how to obtain extra support for those with a disability or chronic health conditions, including students with dyslexia, dyspraxia, AD(H)D, and other Specific Learning Difficulties/Differences, as well as students on the Autistic Spectrum, and those with mental health difficulties. Any student with specific requirements who has not already done so is urged to complete a DAS Registration form available at www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare/disability (under the Resources section).

Within Somerville, the Disability Co-Ordinator is the Student Welfare Lead, Jo Ockwell. Jo liaises with students and the Disability Advisory Service in order to put in place necessary reasonable adjustments. Jo can be contacted at jo.ockwell@some.ox.ac.uk. If any student wishes to appeal against the decision of the Student Welfare Lead regarding college based reasonable adjustment requests, they may put their appeal, in writing, to the Treasurer.

PART H: RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

H1: University regulations

The University expects graduates to be resident in Oxford during Full Term in order to pursue their course. Minimum residence requirements are set out in the University's Examination Regulations. These Regulations require undergraduates to keep residence for 42 days each term.

Research students may be granted dispensation from the requirements to keep residence if it is necessary for them to carry out their academic work elsewhere. To seek permission, contact your department in the first instance. Graduate students must reside within twenty-five miles of Carfax unless they have been given special permission to work away from Oxford for a period.

Further information about these requirements is explained in full in the Student Handbook at <http://www.proctors.ox.ac.uk/handbook/handbook/>.

PART I: APPEALS

I1. College appeal process

Students given a penalty in relation to non-academic matters may submit an appeal against the ruling, in writing, to the Senior Tutor in the first instance. The Senior Tutor will refer the appeal to a former Dean who will not have had any contact with the student concerned and will rule on the appeal. Those dissatisfied with the former Dean's ruling may make a further appeal to the Conference of Colleges' Appeal Tribunal: <http://www.confcoll.ox.ac.uk/html/main/ccat.html> . It should be noted, though, that CCAT will not consider cases where the penalty imposed falls below their definition of a substantial penalty, which includes the penalties of expulsion, rustication or suspension, substantial fines (defined as fines above £1,000) and other penalties of similar severity. As such, students found guilty of a Minor Breach of Discipline (as defined in the Non-Academic Misconduct Discipline Code (available at College Policies - Somerville College Oxford) will not have recourse to CCAT but may appeal directly to the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education (see below).

The outcome of an Academic or Behaviour-Related Disciplinary Panel is a final decision of the Principal and Governing Body, and therefore a student wishing to appeal should approach the Conference of Colleges Appeal Tribunal.

I2. Conference of Colleges Appeal Tribunal (CCAT)

A student may appeal against a decision by the College to impose a substantial penalty by filing a written application to the Conference of Colleges Appeal Tribunal (CCAT) not more than five days after being notified of the decision. The application should include a copy of the decision being challenged, a brief statement of the facts and of the arguments on which the application is based, your request for a remedy, where applicable an application for a stay of the effects of the decision being challenged or for any other preliminary relief of an urgent nature, and your contact details. This will be acknowledged by the CCAT Secretariat

CCAT will then organise a Panel to review the case; no members of the Panel will have any direct connection with the College. The Panel will normally convene a hearing within 14 days from receipt of the application but this will depend on the circumstances of each case. The student and the College may be represented by a third party (including, at the Panel's discretion, by Counsel and/or a solicitor). The hearing will normally be in public and a decision will normally be made within seven days of the hearing of the appeal. Full procedures can be obtained from <https://www.confcoll.ox.ac.uk/html/main/ccat.html>.

I3. Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education

Under the Higher Education Act 2004, certain complaints which the student concerned considers have not been properly dealt with by the College (and the CCAT where applicable) may be pursued with the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education. Please see www.oiahe.org.uk for full details.

PART J: COMPLAINTS

J1. Sources of advice

The University website has a detailed page of guidance for students on complaints and appeals at: <https://www.ox.ac.uk/students/academic/complaints?wssl=1>. This contains details of how to contact the OUSU Student Advice Service, Harassment Line and Student Counselling Service, and links to the Proctor's 'Student Handbook' which is also referred to throughout this document.

J2. Resolving complaints informally

Where possible, the College seeks to help students resolve any complaints they may have informally. Students should normally take a complaint on academic matters to their Personal Tutor or the Tutor for Graduates, in confidence. Tutors should discuss cases where a student is not working to the best of their ability with the student concerned, in the first instance, and report serious or persistent issues to Education Committee for discussion.

A complaint in relation to accommodation, catering or support staff should be taken in the first instance to their manager: Treasurer or Senior Tutor. Students may be accompanied in these instances by a fellow Somerville Junior Member of their choice.

A complaint relating to a fine imposed by the Dean should be treated as an appeal and follow the process outlined in J1 above.

J3. Formal complaints

If it is not possible to resolve a complaint informally, then a written complaint may be sent to the Principal. The Principal may delegate responsibility for responding to the complaint to another senior member of the College.

College Committees

Education Committee is composed of the Principal (in the Chair), the Vice-Principal, Senior Tutor, Treasurer, Librarian, the Dean, Academic Registrar, Student Welfare Lead, and all Tutorial Fellows. The Academic Registrar acts as Secretary to the Committee, and the Academic Office Administrator takes the minutes. At least one Tutor from each Honour School, nominated by the Tutors in that School, attends each meeting. The Agenda is divided into two parts: Part A and Part B, the latter containing Reserved Business. The MCR and JCR Academic Affairs representatives and the Access Officer attend for Part A. Each Honour School may also nominate one Lecturer to serve on the Committee. The Committee normally meets at least twice a term to consider such educational questions as may from time to time arise and in particular:

- a) Policies relating to teaching and learning;
- b) The progress, industry and conduct of undergraduates and graduates;
- c) The awarding of Scholarships, Exhibitions and Prizes from the appropriate funds, and carrying out an annual review of award holders;
- d) Examination results;
- e) The awarding of course and travel grants from the appropriate funds;
- f) Policy and guidance on matters of behavioural discipline
- g) Receive College's academic progress monitoring and support procedures in cases of students who fail to meet the standard required

Finance Committee is composed of the Principal (in the Chair), the Vice-Principal, four Fellows who normally serve for at least two years, the Senior Tutor, Domestic Bursar, and Treasurer who acts as Secretary to the Committee. The Governing Body may co-opt not more than three specially qualified persons, whether members of the College or not. The Agenda is divided into two parts: Part A and Part B, the latter containing Reserved Business. The JCR President and Treasurer, and the MCR President and Treasurer, may attend for Part A. The Committee normally meets at least twice in each term to consider such financial questions as may from time to time arise, and in particular:

- a) To scrutinize the annual and management accounts, and financial reports presented by the Treasurer;
- b) At such times as may be agreed upon, to approve a forward estimate of revenue and expenditure for each financial year;
- c) To review twice each year the state of the college's investments and properties;
- d) To authorize exceptional expenditure from revenue and to make recommendations to Governing Body in respect of capital expenditure;
- e) To keep under review the terms and conditions of administrative and domestic appointments;
- f) To consider other financial issues, as appropriate.

Finance Sub-Committee is composed of the Principal, Vice-Principal and Treasurer. The sub-committee shall be convened when required to discuss important issues, and issues of sensitivity.

Standing Committee is composed of the Principal (in the Chair), Vice-Principal, Treasurer, Senior Tutor, Secretary to Governing Body, together with four Tutorial Fellows. Those other members of the Governing Body who wish to attend should advise the Senior Tutor beforehand of their intention to do so. Heads of Departments not already represented on the Committee (e.g., Bursary, Library) may be invited to attend for discussions of issues of particular interest. The Standing Committee is not, for the most part, a decision-making body but may be asked by Governing Body to take on a delegated authority for operational decisions when the constraints of the timetable of Governing Body meetings require this, e.g., when a decision must be finalized following further enquiry or consultation prior to the next meeting of Governing Body, or during the Long Vacation.

The Committee normally meets two or three times a term.

- a) To agree the agenda for meetings of Governing Body;
- b) To develop academic and other strategies for the College, and to monitor decision-making, and developments that bear on these strategies;
- c) To consider academic appointments and bids for association with University posts;
- d) To consider requests for buy-outs and leave, with particular attention to their impact on teaching resources;
- e) To receive the reports of ad hoc working groups;
- f) To discuss items which by reason of their complexity and difficulty are beyond the remit of other committees, or which need further attention beyond that given to them in a specialized committee, e.g., Buildings Committee, Finance Committee;
- g) To give close consideration to policy issues within the wider University, and external bodies, in preparation for consultation with Governing Body.
